

Our Book Swap at the Environmental Center is a great way to avoid throwing away your unwanted books and give them a second life, and for you to pick up some new treasures to enjoy reading. We encourage you to come to the Environmental Center for this unique event to preserve resources, promote reading and raise money for future nature programs.

This is a great opportunity to actively practice the 3R's—REDUCE, REUSE, RECYCLE!

Saturday, May 1 Drop-Off Day 10:30am to 1:30pm

Are your bookshelves overflowing with books that you've either already read or will never read? Here's a way to spread that knowledge while receiving a voucher to shop for a new reading collection. Drop off all of your unwanted books at the Essex County Environmental Center on May 1st. All books will be sorted and on display for purchase (or voucher) on May 15th.

Saturday, May 15 Shopping Day 10:30am to 1:30pm

Love to read? New books can be pricy and resource intensive. Library books are free but are limited and have to be returned fairly quickly. An alternative solution is to buy inexpensive used books that were collected from community members just two weeks ago! Books can be purchased with cash or by using a voucher you may have received on May 1st. For more information, call the Essex County Environmental Center at 973-228-8776.

All proceeds will go to the Essex County Parks Foundation for environmental education programming and projects at the Essex County Environmental Center.
